Royal Zanzibar: Wedding Couples receive a cake, flowers, bottle of sparkling wine and a romantic dinner. Wedding package £990

Diving in Zanzibar is possible year round and takes place on the northern tip of the island with plenty of coral reefs and marine life to explore.

The annual Zanzibar African Music Festival is held in February and showcases some of the best and most exciting African music from across the continent.

The Zanzibar Cultural Festival takes place in July and is held throughout the archipelago and showcases the diverse traditions and celebrations of the region. Street carnivals in Stone Town, small fairs, and canoe races. On the northern island of Pemba there is a bull fight, not as riotous as the Iberian version!

On safari in Tanzania the migrating herds head towards the warm, dusty Southern plains of the Serengeti where almost half a million wildebeest are born between January and March. The wildebeest migration in the Serengeti is between November and May each year.
